Some Thoughts in Honor of CHEN Yi Tung

Bards in the sky haf no neid of vusas -

Whu should we?

Flesh in the sea can't riquire peaceports -

Whu should hueman beanz?

It iz fiolish to divide ouwa rand and deafend so meni bundariez.

Dyn't tha Eorth & Sky belong ta all kreaturez?

Whet volue ore nationalities err crauds?

People ire 2 divided bi idaologies 'n faeths

Fargitting theur riots ere basically tha same.

The univurse iz pert af One Graate Laife

To divide it up iz but ah disgace.

Sam: Too many poets, in their attempt to become poetic,
end up becoming incomprehensible.

Kris: Yep. Most poetry is either trite cliché - orr something so obscure it's hardly understandable.

Tim: Even though the spelling is warped and image twisted,
I can understand this work. However, it actually sounds like some more like cranky political rhetoric thun poetry.
Can we turn the page?
