

GULF WAR:

Some thoughts about American Kleptocracy & Petroleum Politics

Yahoo, Cowboys!

Blast dat dere varmit, Saddam Hussein!

Isn't it fun ta kill fer oil

An' watch da world go up in flame?

Now I dun't much reckon 'bout politicks

Err understan' komplex dings

Bud I know wun dis fer certain:

Any wun pushin' petrol prices too hi

'ill get a ton ah bullets

& smart bombs over dare skies.

Lots ah people fight fer freedom

Un a few fer ideology

But Amerika kills fer petroleum –

Cus dat equals wealth & power in Corporate-Think.

Ted: So the Gulf War was all about petroleum?

Terri: Basically. Perhaps the animosity between Bush and Hussein also clouded their judgment. Once people become too emotional, they lose all common sense.

Kris: Why do ordinary people have to pay for the stupidity of their leaders?

Terri: That's how history works.
