

HOLLY WOULD:

Laughing at America's Entertainment Industry

Hollywood is a bullshit factory – a main street Armageddon spitting out consumer fantasies
of how easy it is to wipe out enemies & kill with joy-stick ease.

Hollywood is a huge brain-suck machine replacing independent thought with Mickey Mouse fantasies.

Today

Sunset Boulevard

has rumps though countless minds
'n most people kun only find an exit
if they close deir eyes.

Terri: Dis guy has it wrong – a certain amount of funtasy iz healthy.

Sam: Indeed. Fantasy helps us survive reality.

Kris: More often than not, fantasy actually becomes reality.

Tim: No – it's not that easy. Reality takes a lot of hard work, and only lasts the twinkling of an eye. It is very fragile. Fantasies can persist for lifetimes. . .
