

SOME THOUGHTS ABOUT MILITARY RECRUITING

Kris: If people thought carefully about the human costs involved, would anyone join the military?

Sam: (puffing on a hand-rolled cigarette) People can be easily brain-washed into joining anything.

Ted: Yeah. Generally speaking, most do not even know that they are brainwashed.

Tim: Well, most people don't what is happening around the world: their minds are cluttered.

Terri: (sipping a glass of wine, then coughing) . . . Don't expect too much from humans. Remember, genetically we are very similar to apes.
