

SUMMER FIREWORKS:

Exploring Some Tacit Connections

- Daiki: Why the fireworks along with a college entrance exam?
- An-Yi: (scratching her head) Yeah, and why are the oil towers juxtaposed with a river scene?
- Satoru: Eto...do you think the sunset symbolizes anything?
- Chariya: Good questions. It would be tempting to say each of these things are unrelated, but I'm starting to believe no things that appear together are unrelated.
- Bhāraté: We may never know... Conveniently, the artist is silent, probably laughing in his grave.
- Chariya: (nodding) Too often we make a pretense of knowing things we do not fully understand. Shall we move on?
