

LAYERED LEARNING:

Some Thoughts about Information Funneling

Satoru: (shaking his head) I don't see any 'layered learning' here.

Melissa: (slowly scratching her cheek) Yeah. I just see layers of funky patterns. What should be 3-dimensional appears to be flattened out into some weird 2-dimensional plane.

Tim: (nodding) Yep – that's what education often is: taking the life out of something & flattening it so that it can easily be displayed.
