

DESERT DREAMS:

Some arid thoughts

Yahui : Wind, sand, sun: aren't those the elements of a desert?

Carlos : (raising his eyebrows) Aren't you forgetting humans?

Yahui : (shaking her head) No, humans aren't that essential.
Our sense of self-importance is far too over-inflated.

Carla : (nodding) Often that seems true. Besides, humans are not the only creatures that dream. . .
