Miok : What to do with the animal nature inside us? That's a question that everyone attempting to be human must confront.

Cantara : The traditional recipe is to slay the beasts: kill the minotaurs, wolves, and dragons within.

Chris : I'm not sure that's wise. Isn't it better to make peace with them?

Tim : (sighing) Many people attempt that. If you cannot slay the beasts inside you, then perhaps we should create a protective fence. Learn to be human – not bestial.
