

WORDS TO LIGHT:

Some thoughts about weirdness and virtual reality

Wan-Sze : (gazing at the image) What is this?

Nadia : I dunno. Sum ding weird, huh?

Will : Who knows? What people call "queer" is usually just unexamined.

Nadia : (Playfully speaking like a child) Uh huh. Buddu I'm too busy 'n ta examine – can we play a compu-game instead?

Will : Sure – go on. Most people are unwilling ta read poetry, even though that's what they need.

Kasim : No problem. Isn't life itself like a computer game?

Will : Yeah, in many ways (sipping a cup of coffee) ... and eventually all games end.
