

RETURNING TO SILENCE

Tim: (shaking his head after looking at an artwork) I can't make any sense of this image. How about you?

Min: (shrugging his shoulders with indifference) It seems disjointed. However, isn't that the way many of us feel at times?

Rea: (nodding) I certainly do more than occasionally. My life seems like a badly written play performed by a third-rate actor.

Ting: Be gentle with yourself. Up close, almost all of our lives are farcical. However, there is a music to the madness.

Satoru: (chuckling wistfully) I guess we need to learn to find the "music" within the noise.
